DETAILED ACTION

Acknowledgment of Papers Received: Information Disclosure Statement dated 05/22/02

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 17 – 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

3. Claims 17-19 provide for the use of the preparation for various administration methods, but, since the claim does not set forth any steps involved in the method/process, it is unclear what method/process applicant is intending to encompass. A claim is indefinite where it merely recites a use without any active, positive steps delimiting how this use is actually practiced.

Claims 17-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed recitation of a use, without setting forth any steps involved in the process, results in an improper definition of a process, i.e., results in a claim which is not a proper process claim under 35 U.S.C. 101. See for example Ex parte Dunki, 153 USPQ 678 (Bd.App. 1967) and Clinical Products, Ltd. v. Brenner, 255 F. Supp. 131, 149 USPQ 475 (D.D.C. 1966).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1-3, 5-7, 10-12, 14-16, 20-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Griffin et al (EP 0 010 987 hereafter '987). The claims are drawn to a controlled release preparation where the active agent is disposed onto a laminated sheet, and the sheet is rolled or folded together.

5. The '987 reference discloses a rolled up preparation for the controlled release of active agent in the body (abstract). The laminate comprises an erodible layer, which contains the active agent, and a non-erodible layer (Figure 1). When the preparation is rolled the diameter greater than 0.5 mm (page 8, line 10-30). The device can be covered with equally erodible layers for delivery (page 6, line 28-34). The device is designed to open and assume a flat shape once in the stomach (abstract). The particular release profiles can be determined through routine experimentation and changed to fit the needs of the patient (page 5, line 1-14). The drug-containing layer is attached to a carrier, rolled, and delivered to the patient (examples). The device can further comprising water-soluble layers that help unfold the device (page 8, line 1-9). These disclosures render the claims anticipated.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

8. Claims 4,8,9,13, and 17-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Griffin et al (EP 0 010 987 hereafter '987). The claims are drawn to a controlled release preparation where the active agent is disposed onto a laminated sheet, and the sheet is rolled or folded together.

9. As discussed above the '987 reference discloses a controlled release laminate in rolled up form. The reference is silent to the inclusion of active agents in the water-insoluble layer. However, it is the position of the examiner that such a limitation lacks criticality barring a showing thereof. The device of the reference performs identically to that of the instant claims, and is within the same field of endeavor. Further the orientation of the drug-containing sheet can be determined by routine experimentation and by those of ordinary skill in the art. The Office does not have the facilities for examining and comparing applicant's product with the product of the prior art in order to establish that the product of the prior art does not possess the same material structural and functional characteristics of the claimed product. In the absence of evidence to the contrary, the burden is upon the applicant to prove that the claimed products are functionally different than those taught by the prior art and to establish patentable differences. See Ex parte Phillips, 28 U.S.P.Q.2d 1302, 1303 (PTO Bd. Pat. App. & Int. 1993), Ex parte Gray, 10 USPQ2d 1922, 1923 (PTO Bd. Pat. App. & Int.) and In re Best, 562 F.2d 1252, 195 USPQ 430 (CCPA 1977)..

10. With these things in mind it would have been obvious to a skilled artisan to use the device of '987 to deliver active agents for controlled release. A skilled artisan would have been motivated to follow the teachings and suggestions of the reference to manipulate the parameters of the device in order to improve the delivery of the active agents to the patient. It would have been obvious to a skilled artisan to do so with an expected result of a durable, strong, simple and cheap drug delivery device.
